Tip of the month — April 2016

Check with light how clean the lens is

A flashlight is very common these days, even more common on smartphones. Aim the flashlight at the camera, daily, from the side (!) and see if the glass is clean. Not only where the camera is is important, but also the corners on top from where the main laser and teat laser have to do their job.