

Tip of the Month – April 2023

Start grazing.

Starting early in the spring is especially important when combining robotic milking and grazing.

And not the amount of grass but the carrying capacity of the soil should be decisive.

If there is not much grass yet, this mainly means that the cows learn the cycle faster:

barn – milking robot – pasture – barn / feeding fence – milking robot – pasture – and so on.