

Tip of the Month – December 2021

Helping by Service is instructive.

Try to be present as often as possible when a service is being done.

Not only can you help make this turn go smoother, but you learn from it every time!

And in the meantime, with a simple chat, something often comes up that both you or the mechanic run into and which may or may not be prevented differently.